

ready for you

midwxst

I just go off in the booth, tryna live my truth
Never forgot my dad face, when he said, "I'm proud of you"
Now we on the road (Oh yeah), in the Sprinter not a coupe (Skrrt, skrrt)
Logo on the headrest, yeah, that's what you're supposed to do
But this feeling new to me, it could fade soon
There were times I really wished I didn't have to hear the bad news
South Carolina, summers don't feel the same without you Really cry when I make songs, but I try to play it cool
So I ride head out the window, playin' Limbo with the wind
Clear my mind out, need a tea break, I've been burning out again
Mama said, "Keep an eye out, no, not everyone's your friends"
See my name on Billboard, yeah, before the year ends

All this waiting, contemplatin'
I've been changing for you
I hope you noticed
Life's been crazy
Risks I'm taking
I think I'm ready for you

Man, this shit is all new the light shines through Got angels above me sayin' "Don't worry, see you soon" (God damn)
Anything I'd be in functions where I'd have to wear a suit
Graduated twenty-one (Oh, yeah), barely got through twenty-two (Oh, yeah)
Nineteen in the club (Nineteen), but I'm just tryna go home
Never really at the crib, never get time to be alone
Always with my friends, can't be on my own (Can't get to) Mama told me "Eat", put some meat on these bones
I've been ridin' 'round, 'round, 'round (Skrrt)
Runnin' red lights on the road when I'm tryna find a way out of this town
By now I thought that I would love myself
I'll walk through the fire, but I need your help 'cause...

All this waiting, contemplatin'
I've been changing for you
I hope you noticed
Life's been crazy
Risks I'm taking
I think I'm ready for you
