

Baby, are you really mine?
Or are we just wastin' time? (Oh, set you free)
Never thought I'd pay this price
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl, girl
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl (Oh, set you free)
Mm, you're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl

Way too many problems, not enough solutions, not enough to offer, yeah
We can find a resolution
Only feel confusion
I thought we were co-authors, girl
In the novel that's just fiction
Love turned to addiction
But you're my only victim
You turn around and blame me
Like you weren't actin' crazy
What's been up with you lately?

Baby, are you really mine?
Or are we just wastin' time? (Oh, set you free)
Never thought I'd pay this price
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl, girl
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl (Oh, set you free)
Mm, you're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl
(Oh, set you free)
You're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl

Ups and downs, we can't maintain
All this back and forth finally drove me insane
I thought time would heal the pain, but ain't shit change
But ain't shit change
Really glad I ain't let you take my last name
Froze in time like the lovers stuck in Pompeii
People say we're immature, but what can I say?
But what can I say?

Baby, are you really mine?
Or are we just wastin' time? (Oh, set you free)
Never thought I'd pay this price
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl, girl
But for you, I'll wait in line, girl (Oh, set you free)
Mm, you're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl
(Oh, set you free)
You're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl
(Oh, set you free)
You're the one that's gonna read my mind, girl
