Yeah, I been tryna read your signs
In the wrong, but say you're right
I never suffi-i-i-iced
Fuck the message that you typed
You can text, I won't reply
Always switchin' sides

Yeah, got nothing to give
Thought that you would stay
But I guess this is just the end
You do not make sense
Want this shit to end
All is said, and you won't fuck with me, yeah
You won't be friends
Drifted to the deep end, fuck you, I don't need friends
Matte black SUV, the windows got a new tint
Drifted to the deep end, fuck you, I don't need friends
Matte black SUV, the windows got a new tint
Need you there, but never show
Don't care what you say or know
Don't tell me to call her, bitch
My feelings are ludicrous
My mind, I've been losing it
Your love is confusing me
If you think that you can come and play me
Then you're stupid, bitch
And I know, uh, you gon' try to call me, hit my phone
Not my bro, no, I can't do this shit all on my own
Leave a message at the tone
Please stop blowing up my phone
True colors, yeah, they are shown
Please leave me the fuck alone

(True colors, yeah, they are shown)
(Please leave me the fuck alone)
(Leave me the fuck alone)
(Le-Le-Le-Leave me the fuck alone)
