

Fuck
Da-da-da-da-da
Ah-ah-ah-ah
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh

Put on a mask, why you two-faced?
In pain, got a toothache
Tripping on my shoelace
Tell me how the truth tastes
Treat me like a mistake
Hope I catch 'em, my fate
I got lots on my plate
Always acting so fake
See the fake between your eyes
Hiding from me in disguise
Homeboys creeping through the night
Can't get in, access denied
Cut your logic with my knife
Always got me in some shite
See the tears off from my eyes
Always wanna fucking lie

There's nowhere to go, always ends up the same
I always get hurt and always take the blame
Alone on the sidewalk under the rain
You always spit lies out your mouth, all those claims

I walk around like the Grim Reaper in the night
You better watch your windows, might be your last sight
You never wanna change, you never pick a side
Your words, they poison me, it feels like cyanide
You niggas really thought this shit was gon' be the same
I'm not here to play, nigga, this not a game
I'm quiet but loud, nigga, we not the same
Yeah, fuck all the money, yeah, fuck all the fame
Keep talking down, nigga, what will you gain?
Got lots of shit going on in my brain
I'm walking through Hell nigga, put out the flames
I cannot be stopped, nigga, cannot be tamed

Walking through a hellfire and a hailstorm
Try to move on from the past, trying to reborn
Nothing good can ever last, ends in reform
I got nothing in my stomach, need to eat more
Life seems like a marathon I cannot win
Always injecting [?]
Lies shoot through my body like I am [?]
Seems like my story's come to an end
