Oh, it's something you'd tell me
Oh, I don't know what to say
Should I keep on going?
Please help me, it's everyday
I'm trying to try, I'm sorry
I don't know why it's so bad
I feel I'm numb before
It feels like I'm stuck, I'm fighting
Oh, why did it have to go this way?
And why do you want to run away?
Can't make you talk, go to bed, it's late
'Cause I just think I'm in a haze

I know
Where this'll go
Don't hit my phone, no
Wan' be alone
You don't wanna see my face, wanna turn into a mess
I'm livin' under pressure, I've been livin' under stress
You didn't answer my calls when I was under distress
I forgot all the words that you told me you said
I don't wanna speak, I don't wanna say a word
Nobody really there for me even though they said they were
And all these thoughts inside my head they spin, they go and swirl
Want you in my life forever, you're my forever girl
I don't wanna speak I don't wanna say a word
Nobody really there for me even though they said they were
And all these thoughts inside my head they spin, they go and swirl
Want you in my life forever, now my forever girl

Oh, it's something you'd tell me
Oh, I don't know what to say
Should I keep on going?
Please help me, it's everyday
I'm trying to try, I'm sorry
I don't know why it's so bad
I feel I'm numb before
It feels like I'm stuck, I'm fighting
Oh, why did it have to go this way?
And why do you want to run away?
Can't make you talk, go to bed, it's late
'Cause I just think I'm in a haze
