Burn

Mighty Oaks

We got the flame, we should let it burn.
It's a shame if we don't, cause god damn it hurt.
And oh they call it love, but it don't feel the same
As when we were young, something has changed.

And right from the start, you weren't to be tamed
Yeah you ripped it apart by playing your games.
And I should've known what lay before me.
A rose and a thorn, that you'd make me bleed.

And all that I could do was fill my lungs and stoke the flame.
I've been here before, but I can't seem to turn away.
I've got all my heart in you.

It's easy to walk, that's something I know.
Cuz I've been doing it so long, say the words, shut the door.
And off on my way, forget what I've seen.
And nothing to say for all that we've been.

And all that I could do was fill my lungs and stoke the flame.
I've been here before, but I can't seem to turn away.
I've got all my heart in you.

And all that I could do was fill my lungs and stoke the flame.
I've been here before, but I can't seem to turn away.
I've got all my heart in you.
I can't turn away, I've got all my heart in you.
