

Forget Tomorrow

Mighty Oaks

We coulda done more with our time
Coulda run, coulda left this place behind
But we let our time run away
I gotta go but we both know
Oh, we know 'cause it ain't the first time
That I gotta leave you behind

No matter where I'll go I'll hold you
Gonna hold you in my mind
Gonna hold you in my mind
And I won't let go, I'll hold you
Gonna hold you in my mind
Gonna hold you in my mind

And oh, you know I've got to go away
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day
Can you hear me now, what I'm trying to say?
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day
Let's forget tomorrow for a day

You tried to count down the days
Tried to count 'em down, make them go away
But they all keep rolling much the same
It's killing me that I got to go
But I gotta get back on the road
'Cause, babe, you know that I'm a rambling soul

No matter where I'll go I'll hold you
Gonna hold you in my mind
Gonna hold you in my mind
And I won't let go, I'll hold you
Gonna hold you in my mind
Gonna hold you in my mind

And oh, you know I've got to go away
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day
Can you hear me now, what I'm trying to say?
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day

If we're both here
We should be both clear
On what we hold dear
If we only got today
If we're both here
We should be both clear
On what we hold dear
If we only got today

And oh, you know I've got to go away
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day
Can you hear me now, what I'm trying to say?
Let's forget tomorrow just for a day

Let's forget tomorrow for a day
