

Higher Place

Mighty Oaks

Tell a lie, play with fire, oh it's natural
Down a sight, don't know why it's irrational
You caught my eye, I passed her by, I couldn't let you go
And all the while, it's out of sight, but we're keeping on

And now I wish we could run away from here now and just go away
Cause all I see is fighting oh and lying and I just can't stay

And I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days
I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days

Try and try to do what's right, it's paradoxical
To justify every lie, as though it's fashionable
Fire in line, it's just outside, it's all imaginable
And all the?, you look inside, so hypocritical

And I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days
I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days

I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days
I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days

I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days
I take you to a higher place
Won't come down for the rest of my days
Won't come down for the rest of our days
