

Picture

Mighty Oaks

I lost my faith
In you darling
It's gone away
In time
It's got a way
To turn my feelings
Into pain

Oh my dear I hold you in my mind
But the picture that you drew was less than fine
Oh my dear I hold you in my mind
But the picture that you drew was less than fine

Tell me a story
And I listen
To what I believe
Distance
It's got a way
To turn my feelings
Into pain

Oh my dear I hold you in my mind
But the picture that you drew was less than fine
Oh my dear I hold you in my mind
But the picture that you drew was less than fine

Oh I thought I need no one
But I see in you
You're the one
Oh I thought I need no one
But I see in you
You're the one

Oh I held you in my mind
And it's all fine
Cause you're all mine
I know I held you in my mind
And it's all fine
Cause you're all mine
