

Your Scars

Mighty Oaks

Don't know where it'll get you
But at least you're runnin' hard
Nobody believes you
Until you show your scars

And all the days, they turn to nights
And I'm, alone again on fire
Someone come and rescue me
And I'll go, I'll go
'Cause I don't want to hear the lies
Someone come and rescue me

Alone at home in your bedroom
And you see things in the dark
When night falls all around you
It covers up your scars

And all the days, they turn to nights
And I'm, alone again on fire
Someone come and rescue me
And I'll go, I'll go
'Cause I don't want to hear the lies
Someone come and rescue me

And all the days, they turn to nights
And I'm, alone again on fire
Someone come and rescue me
And I'll go, I'll go
'Cause I don't want to hear the lies
Someone come and rescue me
Yeah I'll go, I'll go '
'Cause I don't want to hear the lies
Someone come and rescue me
