

Always Time

Miguel

Broken glass, piercing words
It changed so fast, yeah, it hurts
Rocky past, lessons learned
Don't say it's too late, I thought there was always time

When you love this hard
And you try this hard
But it's still not enough
Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Maybe this time love means
Letting go

Private truths, public woes
But all my favorite songs have highs and lows
Laugh with the world or cry alone
I know it's too late, I thought there was always time

When you love this hard
And you fight this hard
But it's still not enough
Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Maybe this time love means

Ooh, when you try and you try
Cry and you cry
Fight and you fight
All the opposite ways that you grow

Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Letting go
Maybe this time love means
Letting go, letting go
Letting go, letting go, letting go
Yeah, love, ooh-oh
Ooh-oh

Broken glass, piercing words
It changed so fast, yeah, it hurts
Rocky past, lessons learned
I know it's too late, I thought there was always time
