

Damned

Miguel

I pled my case with the Gods, woman
Just place your sweet shackles on my mind
I'm down to wild notions of waiting slow
No mercy, no pardon for stolen time

When the gavel hit the stand
I'm damned for loving you
Two palm trees in the sand
I'm damned for loving you
We set fire to these skies for our love and I'd do it all again
I'm damned for loving you

Curse the stars now there's no escape
Cause your walls are my favorite vice
Two hearts committed to hopeless fate
I'd serve my life sentence a thousand times, woman

When the gavel hit the stand
I'm damned for loving you
Two palm trees in the sand
I'm damned for loving you
We set fire to these skies for our love and I'd do it all again
Cause I'm damned for loving you

When the gavel hit the stand
I'm damned for loving you
Two palm trees in the sand
I'm damned for loving you
We set fire to these skies for our love and I'd do it all again
I'm damned for loving you

Like you've owned my love in every life before
And every life I live, all my life searching for
It's like you've owned my love in every life before
And every life I live, all my life searching for

When the gavel hit the stand
I'm damned for loving you
Two palm trees in the sand
I'm damned for loving you
We set fire to these skies for our love and I'd do it all again
Cause I'm damned for loving you

When the gavel hit the stand
(Just like it's always been)
I'm damned for loving you
Two palm trees in the sand
(Can't get away from it)
I'm damned for loving you
We set fire to these skies for our love and I'd do it all again
Cause I'm damned for loving you

I'm damned for loving you
