

Rope

Miguel

All of your love
I can't recall
At all
There's a hole in my head
That seemed so small
Not anymore
And all of our love
Won't save me now

I'm hanging onto nothing
I'm hanging from the ceiling
Rope around my neck
I'm hanging onto something
The walls are closing in
This rope around my neck
This rope around my neck

All of your love
I can't recall
Not at all
There's a hole in my head
That seemed so small
Not anymore
And all of our love
It still can't save me now

I'm hanging onto nothing
I'm hanging from the ceiling
Rope around my neck
I'm hanging onto something
The walls are closing in
This rope around my neck
This rope around my neck

I know I'm gonna be okay
A little help from my friends
On the edge of infinity, yeah
And I think it's gonna be alright
But I guess it all depends
But I guess it all depends
I think it's gonna be alright
