

Sledgehammer

MIIA

I hit a wall, I never felt so low, so low
Like a waterfall, my tears dropped to the floor, the floor
They left a swimming pool of salted crimes, crimes
Oh, what could I do to change your mind?
Nothing

I'm bracing for the pain and I am letting go
I'm using all my strength to get out of this hole

I hit a wall, I thought that I would hurt myself
Oh, I was sure your words would leave me unconscious
And on the floor, I'd be lying cold, lifeless
But I hit a wall, I hit 'em all, watch the fall
You're just another brick and I'm the sledgehammer
You're just another brick and I'm a sledgehammer

Yeah, I hit a wall
I prayed that I would make it through, make it through
I can survive a life that's without you, without you, yeah
And I will rise up from the ashes now, the ashes now
Oh, the sparrow flies with just the crumbs of loving spilled, y eah

I was bracing for the pain and then I let it go
I gathered all my strength and I found myself whole

I hit a wall, I thought that I would hurt myself
Oh, I was sure your words would leave me unconscious
And on the floor, I'd be lying cold, lifeless
But I hit a wall, I hit 'em all, watch the fall
You're just another brick and I'm the sledgehammer
You're just another brick and I'm a sledgehammer
