

Excuses For Love

Mika

It's strong enough
Why do we have to make excuses for love?
We keep on hiding like we're not good enough
Oh, I'm gonna stop making excuses for love
La-la, la-la-love
The way that I feel
Got me so high that I don't know if it's real
What is this magic 'cause you're doing it right?
Oh, this love has got me flying high as a kite
High as a kite

Excuses for love
You and I got no excuses for love
High as a kite
Excuses for love
You and I need no excuses for love (Excuses for love)

Love stoned, love stoned
High as kite
Love stoned, love stoned, love stoned

It's strong enough
Why do we have to make excuses for love?
We keep on hiding like we're not good enough
Oh, I'm gonna stop making excuses for love
La-la, la-la-love
The way that I feel
Got me so high that I don't know if it's real
What is this magic 'cause you're doing it right?
Oh, this love has got me flying high as a kite
High as a kite

Excuses for love
You and I got no excuses for love
High as a kite
Excuses for love
You and I need no excuses for love (Excuses for love)
And if you think that we're not good enough
You and I won't make excuses for love (Excuses for love)

Love stoned, love stoned
High as a kite
Love stoned, love stoned, love stoned

Love stoned (Excuses for love, you and I will make excuses for love)
High as a kite
Love stoned, love stoned (Excuses for love, you and I will make excuses for love)
