G C Emi F

G

You talk about life you talk about death

D

and everything inbetween

C

like its nothing

D

and the words are easy

you talk about me and talk about you

and everything I do

like its something

that needs repeated

G

C

I dont need an alibi or for you to realise
the things we left unsaid

D

are only taking space up in our head

make it my fault win the game

point the finger place the blame

it does me up and down

it doesnt matter now

C

D

G

Coz I dont care if I ever talk to you again

Emi

A

this is not about emotion

C

D

C

I dont need a reason not to care what you say

D

G

or what happened in the end

Emi

A

this is my interpretaion

C

D

G

and it dont dont make sense

The first to wish to count to ten

I hold my breath and wonder when itll happen

does it really matter

if half of what you said is true

and half of what I didnt do

could be different would it make it better

if we forget the things we know

would we have somewhere to go

the only way is down I can see that now

Coz I dont care if I ever talk to you again...
