

KARMA

Mike Dimes

I treat you like royalty, do it accordingly
Everyday, you screamin', "Spoil me"
I flew out the country to make us some money
But money can't buy a bitch loyalty (Top)
Karma's a bitch that I knew on the block
10K, what I spent to get over a thot
Flexin' in pictures I knew that you saw
Hope this loops in your head when you think of your boy

Sorry, not sorry
Hold up, stop
Sorry, not sorry
Hold up, stop
Sorry, not sorry
Hold up, stop
Sorry, not sorry
Hold up

I wanna play every game just to get to your heart and I win me a token, I'm floatin'
I went and I got me a chain just because I remembered that you loved the ocean, I'm petty
I can't go in, I ain't ready
Remember when I didn't have any fetti
You never liked me, you ain't call me pretty
So why [?], bitch, you don't even get me
I'm the type to try and cut you off from all your friends
Just so I can see you go and make 'em all again
Don't pretend like this wasn't in your head to begin
I'm just glad I didn't fall in love and buy you a Benz off the (Top)

Why do I keep takin' L's but the L that I need is some love?
Roses and doves
I shoulda gave you some hugs
But rather I thought about gettin' you diamonds and pearls
The world is yours, I'm just livin' in it
And push come to shove, I'd prolly get wicked
And kill every nigga that played with your feelings
I hope that you see I got purest intentions
I lose myself when I get around women
Forget about work, that's why I can't kick it
It came music, I took it serious
I was amusin', I took you serious

Movin' too fast, can't make me feel timid
Knew you was slimy, I ex-ed you out
Now that you blocked
I wonder why would you still call me while you was there givin' some fuck ni
