Get this. Do you have time you can spend if
So can we go down the dreams on your wishlist
Should have foreseen the type of energy you bring Your skin the same color how I like my coffee mixed with Risk I had to take you gave others my place
Was it all fake was it just something I missed
Did you think I was living for something other than this Wouldn't wish this on my worst friend
Maybe my favorite enemy but you seeing the end of me too
When you know what's going on but you pretend to be confused
Things that you do makes me hate rules
Fate will put you in your place if you can't choose
Life won't give a break at lease you can't move
Suit and case real with receipts you can't prove
Stop telling me what you can't do
How you left me in the cold ain't cool
You telling me the light that I seen ain't you
What these people say don't make or break you
Gold don't tarnish but your love is fake jewels
Greatness is Finding new ways to break through People to resonate with what you relate to
You hate fueled for blame, but it ain't all you
They throw dirt on my name and they ain't got proof
I know I said thangs that ain't all true
Actions speak louder than words
You gotta frame it right
If you go off what they told you might pay the price
I get it. I was lying my pride in it
Not how I meant it. I gave up all 3 of my wishes
Even though it's no more smoke and mirrors
Still went from prince Aladdin to King Ali with it
Know this won't be forever but we had a fun
Clock strikes, midnight, then you had to run
Cinde- Cinderella, you lost one
Cinderella, Cinderella, you lost one
Run
