Aye, yuh, yuh, yuh
Baby put the work in, ain't gotta be perfect
May as well spend it, if you know that it's worth it
Girl, you should get a tip for them looks that you servin'
Put it in with a smile, like I made a purchase

I know your time is precious, this gon' only take a second
You don't really know the pleasure unless you put in the effort
And when I step in, I can see that you're affected
But with all due respect, she ain't seeking no affection
It's a cold game, 405, switching four lanes
Join the campaign, have a hand in the election
It's never been my intent to leave you second guessin'
But, my presence has more impact than first impressions
I know where we going, show me how well you take direction
It's a movie baby, best one in your collection
I don't brag, I get better with every breath
And, I might cop a coupe the same color as your complexion
The smooth-skating amazing fly as blue angels
Greatness is what I'm chasing
Switch states, keep it brief just to make my case
From the start, I knew you just wanted gold medals in the first place
But that's ok

I ain't trynna do you dirty cause you don't deserve it
You don't get the jewels if you just look on the surface
They just say they goals, but you stay determined
I'll put any number on it, ready for a purchase
Baby put the work in, ain't gotta be perfect
May as well spend it if you know that it's worth it
Girl, you should get a tip for them looks that you servin'
Put it in with a smile, like I made a purchase

I ain't trynna do you dirty cause you don't deserve it
You thinking cause your heart got broken, that it's worthless
Been through grim things, you turn back on purpose
But I can rock your world, Make the earth shift
I can keep you warm, just to make it through the storm
Fantastic, feel it burning, trynna figure how you turn the flame on
I make it known, you can leave the others alone
They're like a choir for singing the same songs
I'm tired, I rely on my upbringing and overall, it's fire
You follow protocol when the world is off
Inside of my mind, I'm holding on hoping it don't throw me off
But when you feeling tempted, you gon' brush your shoulders off
I'll give you credit for it, like the movie goin' off
But instead of watching from the side, you should get involved
Unless it antagonizes your pride, with shit you couldn't solve
Then you giving up the ride, like cars for a cause
Keep it rollin y'all

I ain't trynna do you dirty cause you don't deserve it
You don't get the jewels if you just look on the surface
They just say they goals, but you stay determined
I'll put any number on it, ready for a purchase
Baby put the work in, ain't gotta be perfect
May as well spend it if you know that it's worth it

Girl, you should get a tip for them looks that you servin'
Put it in with a smile, like I made a purchase

True
This ones for you
