

Survive You

Mike Mago

Survive you
Takes it out of me, the rebel he would always win
String up
Feelings so deep, he settled under my skin, mm
Started out like I was your all, then you come and you go leave me searching
Cursing the time that I've lost waiting

Mmm...

Wont you save me

I'd give a castle if I could live without you
I give up your nicotine, confess my dreams to forget you
To forget you

I give my kingdom if you let me go, ooh...
I'm begging you that you stop playing and release you hold
I'd give my fortune away to take back the reins while you chose
If you go will you stay, there's no point in this game
I'll get over you, over you

Mmm, yeah, won't you save me from this crazy craving for you lo ve

I'd give a castle if I could live without you
I give up your nicotine, confess my dreams to forget you
I'd raise the ocean floor should I rest my soul just to satisfy you
Give my possessions for, the strength I need to survive you

Mmm...

Wont you save me

I'd give a castle if I could live without you
I give up your nicotine, confess my dreams to forget you
To forget you
