

Disappearing

Mike Patton

I'm disappearing again
Holding on, but I can't for much longer
The clouds are collecting
And moving back in
And I'm disappearing again

I'm disappearing again
Like a note from an old violin
Tapering off and reaching the end
And I'm disappearing again

Maybe it won't be for long
Maybe it's only a fluke
Maybe I'll be back tonight
Maybe I'll come back to you

I'm disappearing again
This time it feels like forever
Drifting away
Like a leaf in the wind
And I'm disappearing again

Maybe I'll come back around
Maybe I will recover
Maybe I'll be here tomorrow
Maybe I'll escape the sorrow
