Attitdues

Mike Posner

Why do fine girls always have attitudes
You say one thing wrong, they get mad at you
You try to loosen them up with the glass or two
Why do fine always have attitudes, attitudes, yeah

My friends back home always ask me
Mike, why you date no supermodels
Well, the truth is that, they too damn skinny
And, always order big ol' bottles of Cristal
Fuck that, no necklaces
I gotta one track my, they can't figure out why
Somebody tell me

Why do fine girls always have attitudes
You say one thing wrong, they get mad at you
You try to loosen them up with the glass or two
Why do fine always have attitudes, attitudes, yeah

My friends back home always ask me
Mike, why you date no actresses
Well, I banged a few, but all they ever do is Talk about being actresses, and I don't care
About your job, who your co-star is
Go suck his cock
Cause it doesn't make a difference to me
No, I need a down chick

A long flight she was in the middle
Met a model chick on the plane
She was thinking about gettin some sleep
I was thinking about gettin some brain
I was starin all out her ass
When I forget to ask her name
That's a shame
I'm a dog, I need to be tamed, give me a call
Said her favorite song last year was "Blaming it on the Alcohol"
At the bar, before the flight, getting shots, feeling right
At the end of day she realize
I'm a young nigga just livin life
You get it right, I spend a stack or two
Her attitude determine attitude, like

Why do fine girls always have attitudes
You say one thing wrong, they get mad at you
You try to loosen them up with the glass or two
Why do fine always have attitudes, attitudes, yeah
