

Unravel

Mike Posner

Unravel for me
Unravel for me
The vibe that we have right now is insane
Sitting and talking, everything is okay
So let me say this shit now before anything changes
Love can grow in dark places

I hugged you and your neck smelled just like home
Then I ran away and hid on top of my throne
Grew a beard for a year that was one of my phases
But love can grow in dark places

If all we have is this moment, then I just wanna be free
And if our names are just curtains, then let me see underneath
Unravel for me
Unravel for me

Just ride shotgun, I don't wanna talk now
Cause words only desecrate how this feels
And I know you feel it too, cause this shit's outrageous
Love can grow in dark places

If all we have is a moment, then I just wanna be free
And if our paths are just curtains, then let me see underneath
Unravel for me
Unravel for me
