

But Why

Mike Ryan

Tonight
You're out late again
Call me and tell me you're out with your friends
Tonight
You're out late again
Call me and tell me you're out with your friends
Oh and I
I know it ain't true
But I just say okay cause what can I do

I could just call you out
Say I know all about him
And where you are tonight

But why
When I'll just end up all alone
When I know you're still comin home
Girl I should hate you
Pack up and tell you goodbye
But why

Cause you ain't gone yet
I still get to lay next to you in this bed Sometimes
And hold you again
For all I know you might be thinking bout him

I could just call you out
Say I know all about him
And all of your lies

But why
When I'll just end up all alone
When I know you're still coming home
Girl I should hate you
Pack up and tell you goodbye

But after that what would I do
'Id be falling apart without you
And why

Would I wanna be all alone
When right now you're still coming home
Girl I should hate you
Pack up and tell you goodbye
Pack up and tell you goodbye
But why
Oh but why
