

Off My Thinker

Mike Ryan

Everything I do, it ain't working
Nothing seems to do the trick
I've tried to give it some time
But all it does is tick
And heartache around every corner
Reminding me she ain't coming back
She walked out the door
Don't want me no more
But she ain't cutting me no slack

So tonight I'm on a drink her off my thinker
That old bar's getting my right blinker
I'm on a tip that old shot slinger
All night long 'til my money's gone
I'm gonna rock, rock, rock 'til the memory rolls
Long as it's gone I don't care where it goes
Sure as there's a neon light
Yeah I'm on a drink her off my thinker tonight

I'm gonna fill up that old jukebox
With a quarter of my paycheck
And I hope that barstool's ready
'Cause that where I'm gonna spend the rest

Tonight I'm on a drink her off my thinker
And that old bar's getting my right blinker
I'm on a tip that old shot slinger
All night long 'til my money's gone
I'm gonna rock, rock, rock 'til the memory rolls
Long as it's gone I don't care where it goes
Sure as there's a neon light
Yeah I'm on a drink her off my thinker tonight

Yeah that girl's been hard on my ticker I know
But I see a little bar light flicker and glow

Tonight I'm on a drink her off my thinker
And that old bar's getting my right blinker
I'm on a tip that old shot slinger
All night long 'til my money's gone
I'm gonna rock, rock, rock 'til the memory rolls
Long as it's gone I don't care where it goes
Sure as there's a neon light
Yeah I'm on a drink her off my thinker tonight
Oh that's right
I'm on a drink her off my thinker tonight
