

Red Eye Flight

Mike Ryan

Yeah It's been one of those days
It's gonna turn into one of those nights
Where there's only one way to make it all alright
When I'm feelin' this kind of low I can
Throw some vinyl on the stereo
And roll up my worries and watch 'em all go up in smoke

I'm takin' that red eye flight
I'm gonna be burnin' bright
Like a 747, through the Northern Lights
35000 feet, ain't gonna have nothin' on me
I'm gonna be high all night
Takin' that red eye flight

There's a bar right down the street
Serves every kinda alcohol
But sittin' there drinkin' isn't gonna work at all
So I'm takin' a trip right now
I'm not even gonna leave my house
I got my window seat right here on the couch

I'm takin' that red eye flight
I'm gonna be burnin' bright
Like a 747, through the Northern Lights
35000 feet, ain't gonna have nothin' on me
I'm gonna be high all night
Takin' that red eye flight

I'm takin' that red eye flight
I'm gonna be burnin' bright
Like a 747, through the Northern Lights
35000 feet, ain't gonna have nothin' on me
I'm gonna be high all night
Takin' that red eye flight

I'm gonna take Marley's advice
And catch that red eye flight
