

bless her

Mike Stud

I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Cartier frames with some diamonds on my dresser
Bottles to the table, we need more they say "Say yessir"
Uber to the telly and she know that I'ma bless her
Freak in the sheets she gon' always give the neck first
How you look so good
'Til the end of time, you gon' stay up on my mind
If looking fine was a crime then somebody should arrest her
I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Cartier frames with some diamonds on my dresser
Bottles to the table, we need more they say "Say yessir"
Uber to the telly and she know that I'ma bless her
Freak in the sheets she gon' always give the neck first
How you look so good
'Til the end of time, you gon' stay up on my mind
If looking fine was a crime then somebody should arrest her

I be float 'til my motherfuckin' head hurt
I be stayin' locked under pressure
And she came in a dress, it's expensive
Didn't wanna leave, but she left in a sweatshirt
Y'all be reaching way too much, y'all gon' foul out
I be picking up the slack like a ground ball
Since a kid, I was lit, I was bound to ball
Since a kid, I was lit, I was down to ball
Now I ain't tripping on some shit, I know I'm not involved
Had homies taking money, gotta count it off
In the hills, hell nah, I ain't down at all
I'm in the hills locked in, I ain't down at all
Took a handful of drugs, now I'm nodding off
I'm in the field on a buzz and I got a call
I ain't trippin' on no shit, I know I'm not involved
Every time I'm in that shit, I make it waterfall

I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Cartier frames with some diamonds on my dresser
Bottles to the table, we need more they say "Say yessir" (Yessir)
Uber to the telly and she know that I'ma bless her
Freak in the sheets she gon' always give the neck first
How you look so good (How you look so good)
'Til the end of time, you gon' stay up on my mind (All on my mind)
If looking fine was a crime then somebody should arrest her
I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Cartier frames with some diamonds on my dresser
Bottles to the table, we need more they say "Say yessir"
Uber to the telly and she know that I'ma bless her
Freak in the sheets she gon' always give the neck first
How you look so good
'Til the end of time, you gon' stay up on my mind
If looking fine was a crime, then somebody should arrest her

I gotta bless her, and you know I gotta bless her
And you know I gotta bless her, yessir, yeah, bless you
You ain't even know it, but I had to bless you
Bless you and protect you
Everything I'm doing now to protect you
I'm the only one that let you be the best you

I'm the only one that let you be the best you

I was throwing a lil money, but I never was invested
Got a little money and I started doing bad shit
Turned a bucket list to a motherfucking checklist
Turned a bucket list to a motherfucking checklist
Waiting, so I'm waiting for my party and expert
Cartier frames with the Bible on the dresser
Mirror's on the ceiling, so you know I gotta bless you
Got a crib in Texas, you look like Mrs. Texas
I ain't got say, but I bring out the best, huh
Fuck a bucket list, I got a checklist
Fuck a bucket list, I got a checklist
Fuck a bucket list, I got a checklist
Check please, reservation getting canceled cause I can't leave
When I'm at home, I'm looking at you, that's the best seat
I'm at the beach down the street, that's the best beat
Truffin' on the best weed

I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Cartier frames with some diamonds on my dresser
Bottles to the table, we need more they say "Say yessir" (Yessir)
Uber to the telly and she know that I'ma bless her
Freak in the sheets she gon' always give the neck first (Always gon')
How you look so good
'Til the end of time, you gon' stay up on my mind
If looking fine was a crime then somebody should arrest her
I got lipstick stains and Versace on my sweatshirt
Diamonds on my dresser, yessir, yessir
