

days go bye

Mike Stud

Yeah

Days go by

These days all I'm trying to know is who I am

Don't know why, it's been hard for me to stay in one place

Days go by

I've been trying to run away from what I know

I don't know where I'm going

But I do know why

Got a backwood rolled full of big old smoke

Got a house filled with friends, gotta keep them close

Got big old eyes for the things I want

And the voice in my head telling me I don't

But right now I'm trying to make it to the morning

I got one more on me if you want it

And right now I'm just living in the moment we have

Yeah

Days go by

These days all I'm trying to know is who I am

Don't know why, it's been hard for me to stay in one place

Yeah

Days go by

I've been trying to run away from what I know

I don't know where I'm going

But I do know why

I've been looking up, I've been looking down

Even went to parties, trying to look around

Bottom of the cup, trying not to drown, yeah

Thinking I'm getting tired of the running 'round, yeah

'Cause none of it hits like it used to

Baby nah

None of it hits like it used to

Oh yeah

'Cause none of it hits like it used to

Baby nah

None of it hits like it used to

Yeah

Days go by

These days all I'm trying to know is who I am

Don't know why, it's been hard for me to stay in one place

Yeah

Days go by

I've been trying to run away from what I know

I don't know where I'm going

But I do know why

For the first time

I'm not thinking about last time

Feels good to know

Yeah baby

For the first time

I'm not thinking about last time

And I know I've been gone

But I'm coming home

Yeah
Days go by
These days all I'm trying to know is who I am
Don't know why, it's been hard for me to stay in one place
Yeah
Days go by
I've been trying to run away from what I know
I don't know where I'm going
But I do know why
