

hail mary

Mike Stud

Let's talk about this tomorrow, 'cause I know that you'll forget
And it's midnight in Chicago, and I'm going with the wind
And now you don't ever make it, but I wake up in your bed
And I know it's just beginning, but it feel like it's the end (Yeah)

But here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going long again, and I'm going hard (Going hard)
And here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going with the wind, and I'm going long (Ayy)

Like a Hail Mary, full of grace
Cup is full, like my plate
Life is good, life is great (Ayy, ayy)
Don't wake me up, I got that dawg in my cup
Drowning out all my fucks, 'til I got none
And my heart is closed like my eyelids, pour me somethin'
It's cold as December
Somebody I ain't really trying to remember
Thought it was, but it wasn't the same, but it wasn't the same
Bartender (Bartender, Bartender)
It's cold as December
Somebody I ain't really trying to remember
Thought it was, but it wasn't the same, but it wasn't the same, yeah

But here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going long again, and I'm going hard (Yeah, yeah)
Like here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going with the wind, and I'm going long (Uh)

Like a Hail Mary, full of grace
Cup is full, like my plate
Life is good, life is great
And you don't care what they think
Hail Mary, full of grace
Going long, as it takes
Going strong, like my drink
Going, going, 'til I can't

But here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going with the wind, and I'm going far (yeah)
Like here we go again, yeah
I'm going strong again, yeah
I'm going with the wind, and I'm going long
