I got a hotel suite you can slide on through Hard D, soft sheets you can climb onto
We was jumping out a plane
Jumping off of boats
Same night, same chicks we be jumping off the most
If you want me to stay, then tell me to stay
You know if I'm running away, I'll show you the way
You know I took one in the face, ain't nothing to say
You know we been jumping off the most

Got me on the champagne
I been off the shits yeah you been on the same thing
Got me on my flex now
Got me walking around acting loud with my chest out
Like I ain't let no one disrespect me yeah
I've been living right where you left me, yeah
Now I'm in Hawaii on a jet ski, yeah
Eh, I'm at the Four Seasons for another season
Got a pool in the room and the view's scenic
I could make a couple calls if you wanna see it
Get you off girl, on the real

You right, you right, I haven't grown up in Oahu
But she think getting high and fucking's romantic
We could bust a move but we ain't gotta go dancing
Drinking something old, fuck I'm on the grown man shit
Got me, got me on the grown man shit
Got me on the champagne
I been off the shits yeah you been on the same thing
Got me on my flex now
You been on the same ride

And I age like Vino
She prefer Pinot
Got a bottle on me right now

It's about to go down
Different night, same town
Eh, and I age like Vino
She prefer Pinot
Got a bottle on me right now
It's about to go down
Different night, same town

Eh, take a walk now
Ain't no way in hell now I'm 'bout to slow down
I ain't saying anymore
You should know now, you should know now
You should know now, know now, know now
Yeah
