

i'm alright

Mike Stud

Yeah, yeah, yeah,
yeah, yeah, yeah,
yeah, yeah, yeah,
Just one more
This is how it's done you ready?

Ooh, I ain't got a lot of money, but I'm saving
If I wake up next to you, I'm tryna stay in You've [?]
Ain't no way to know until you try it
I [?]
Worry about, we worry about the wrong things
All the wrong things

I'm alright with staying in on a Saturday night
I'm alright with God's water, little beer on ice
And I'm alright with front porch and watching cars go by
I'm alright with living life one night at a time

Yeah, I'm alright
I, I, with what I call mine
I don't have everything I want but here's to trying
And don't everybody know good things take time
I'm alright with living life one night at a time, yeah

'Cause every cent I made I ain't taking to my grave Gotta find a way to look my life right in the face
'Cause all the things I should've did and things I should've said Gon' be running through my head wishing I'd do it all again
'Cause time is man-made, it's not the same thing, so Rip it off like a bandaid, I ain't saying things in your order
'Cause time is man-made, it's not the same thing, so Rip it off like a bandaid, but you hear what they say

I'm alright with staying in on a Saturday night
I'm alright with dogs, water, little beer on ice
And I'm alright with front porch and watching cars go by
I'm alright with living life one night at a time

Yeah, I'm alright
I, I, I, with what I call mine
I don't have everything I want but here's to trying
And don't everybody know good things take time
I'm alright with living life one night at a time
Yeah, I'm alright
