

i'm sorry

Mike Stud

It's like all my words are made of glass
Every story ends just like the last
Had to reflect then I realized
You ain't livin' life if you livin' lies
It's like all my words are made of glass
Every story ends just like the last
Realized
I realized
It was time to settle on down

Settle on
Settle on down
Sending love
With my head above the clouds
From up there been sending some down
It was time to settle on down

I'm sorry
Sorry ain't doing nothing for me
That's what she said
No I'm sorry
And I had too much pride in the past
But I'll say it to you right now
I'm sorry
Sorry ain't doing nothing for me
That's what she said
No I'm sorry
I'm sorry that I'm still sayin'
Still sayin it

You been seeing right through my soul
You been singing right to my soul
You been seeing right through my soul
And I know
I know
For all the times I told you lies
And being who I shouldn't be
For all the times I crossed the line
And showed you what you shouldn't see
For all the times I told you I
Was done when I just couldn't be
I'm sorry babe
I'm sorry yeah

I'm sorry
Had to get up in my bag
I ain't got no time to brag
When I do it now
Did a lot of things wrong in the past
But I know how to do them now
And I don't know which way I'm going
But I like the way it's going right now
And I had too much pride in the past
But I'll say it to ya right now

I'm sorry
Sorry ain't doing nothing for me

That's what she said
No I'm sorry
I'm sorry that I'm still sayin'
Still sayin it

You been seeing right through my soul
You been singing right to my soul
You been seeing right through my soul
And I know

I apologize
Every time I lie I did damage
Every time I lied I did damage babe
Realized

I'm sorry
Realized
I Realized
It was time
I apologize
Every time I lie I did damage
Did damage babe
Every time I lied I did damage
I'm sorry
