

Keep being you yeah, someone's gonna feel it
Know it's hard to do with everyone up in your business
Keep being true yeah, that's how you be the realest
Yeah, yeah that's how you be the realest

They don't keep it real no more
Can't even tell what's real no more
Hold up, let me tell you somethin' real, hold on
I feel like we all need the real to hold on
'Til we marry, I'm good with the fake shit
Maybe I don't wanna fake it to make it
We ain't forget that we came all from the basement
No, for real, we used to cut in the basement
In the same one I was raised in
Got some real ones and I wouldn't wanna change one thing
Hell no, a lot has changed since then
At least I know I'll never change who I am

Keep being you yeah, someone's gonna feel it
Know it's hard to do with everyone up in your business
Keep being true yeah, that's how you be the realest
Yeah, yeah that's how you be the realest
Keep being you yeah, someone's gonna feel it
Know it's hard to do with everyone up in your business
Keep being true yeah, that's how you be the realest
Yeah, yeah that's how you be the realest

By the time I die, I'll be the realest
Got a lot up on my mind, that's why I'm on my business
Said I'm steady on my vibe, fuck your feelings
By the time I die, I'll be the realest
Give no fucks about no pictures, except the big one
Y'all go ahead and tie them laces, you know you trippin'
Everybody want attention, don't care who gives it
Just as long as they get it, they think they winnin'
But none of that is a win to me, guess I'm different than y'all
If you're not a friend of me, I don't care what you done
Switchin' up and sendin' me, I can't be what they want
'Least I know what I want, yeah

Keep being you yeah, someone's gonna feel it
Know it's hard to do with everyone up in your business
Keep being true yeah, that's how you be the realest
Yeah, yeah that's how you be the realest
Keep being you yeah, someone's gonna feel it
Know it's hard to do with everyone up in your business
Keep being true yeah, that's how you be the realest
Yeah, yeah that's how you be the realest
