

same guy

Mike Stud

I've been holding on for too long
Now I'm drinkin' at home, singing that same damn song
I know I was gonna be wrong (Yeah)
But being wrong (Yeah), it wasn't really that wrong

I'm not the same guy I was when you met me
I wish I knew why I wasn't ready
And I've seen it all before (Yeah)
'Cause I'm not the same guy, but you heard it all
Heard that all before, yeah

Yeah, she's all that I see now
Step in the past, port from overseas
She's under him to get over me
She's lost as hell 'cause you lost me, but Same way, we ain't go the same way
We both evolved, we don't go the same way
Same crib, we wasn't in the same place
Same, same, same day
I told you that I love you and I want the same thing
I'm done fuckin' around and I'm done playing games
I was running around, stuck in the same place

I'm not the same guy I was when you met me
I wish I knew why I wasn't ready
And I've seen it all before (Yeah, saw it all before, yeah)
'Cause I'm not the same guy, but you heard it all
Heard that all before, yeah

(Yeah, same guy) Same guy
She's heard it all (You just heard it all, I'm not the same guy
But you heard it all (Yeah, yeah), heard that all before, yeah
(I'm not the same guy)
But you heard it all, heard that all before, yeah (You heard, I
'm not the same guy)
