say something

Mike Stud

Yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah
Yeah

Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)
Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)
Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)

The liquor in my cup and got smoke in the air
And I ain't give a fuck who is here 'til you appear
Body language's talking and it said something real, say something real, oh y eah
And that voice up in my head sendin', sayin' something real
There's a whole lotta lames in this bitch, don't fuck with them
And then look up in your eyes, say she want something real
Say she need something real, oh yeah

Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)
Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)

Ayy, yeah you new to L.A., I ain't see you around
I got the keys of L.A, I can show you around
It's a tough crowd here, don't get lost out here
With them fake ass friends and the things they say
Just name some things that you want and some things that you don't
I think my biggest mistakes are the ones that I ain't made
So that ain't no way that I ain't gon' say somethin', yeah
Then recognize the real one then take one

Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)
Body language talking
Need to say something, yeah
And I'd be a fool if I said nothing, yeah
I just turnt up on 'em, say something, yeah, say something, yeah (Oh yeah)
