That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
Yeah, that ain't the way things go
Let's take it slow

Got 200 on the dash, I ain't even got a plan
Like shit's over but it ain't even began
Like just know that where I'm going this ain't here
Like just know it (Yeah)
Got 200 on the dash, I ain't even got a plan
But I got enough for gas if you wanna meet me there
I just know it'll be better if you're there
I just know, yeah

That's how it goes
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
Let's take it slow

And if you upright now and down to come
If you upright now, and I can get what you want right now
I just need a little bit of love right now, no, yeah
Upside down, turn the hotel room upside down
Down to come if you upright now
I just need a little bit of love right now

Okay
I'm tapped in on all facets
Yeah I say on top of that shit, it's all fractions
Hollywood, that's in the past yeah, fuck that shit
I ain't get to where I'm at just to start acting
Yeah I wear a lot of hats, but it's not capping
It ain't even really fashion, it's all action
I ain't get to where I'm at just to talk that shit
But they don't hear me out here
They don't hear me out here

Cause that is how it goes
That ain't the way things go (Way things go)
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
Let's take it slow

And if you upright now and down to come
If you upright now, and I can get what you want right now
I just need a little bit of love right now, no, yeah
Upside down, turn the hotel room upside down
Down to come if you upright now
I just need a little bit of love right now
Yeah

That's how it goes
That ain't the way things go (Way things go)
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
Let's take it slow

That ain't the way things go

And if you upright now and down to come
If you upright now, and I can get what you want right now
I just need a little bit of love right now, no, yeah
Upside down, turn the hotel room upside down
Down to come if you upright now
I just need a little bit of love right now
Yeah

That's how it goes
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
That ain't the way things go
Let's take it slow
That ain't the way things go
