

Wait Another Day

Mike Williams

It's a waste of time
But we'll be fine
Just picture me, lying there
Right next to you
Know I tried, every night
I'm back before you know

Don't you worry
I'll promise you that I'll be coming home
So trust me when I say
I'll be back before you know
I'm sorry if my side of the bed is getting cold
Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

There's no other way
But it's okay
Just picture me, standing there
Right next to you
There's to stay, this is not too late
Yeah I'm back before you know

Don't you worry
I'll promise you that I'll be coming home
So trust me when I say
I'll be back before you know
I'm sorry if my side of the bed is getting cold
Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know

Just wait another day
I'll be back before you know
