MIKE

I just wanna say, thank you

I sent my love, let me know if you get it
It's only tough 'cause they ain't show me affection
Only us, it was the only suggestion I gave
I take the rush, then I slowly regret it
You say it's up, well they know me for stretchin' and praise
Exchanging trust 'cause it showed me a lesson
I make the jump if it show me redemption and faith
I wait a bunch, I wait to fuck
What you sold me looking less than I paid
They say with grudges how them lonely niggas rest in they grave
They change the subject, how I'm supposed to respect it?
You say you want me but you've known me for seconds, it's strange
My greatest hunch should be exposin' they weapon
My favorite buzz'll be the rope of reception or race
My face be numbin', so devoted and restless
My sacred mother, why I'm overprotective and safe
Be sayin' much, but it ain't sober discretion, it's laced
I sent my love, let me know if you get it
I'm blazed and probably drunk
Scared to open your message for days, I'm out of luck
I sent my love, let me know if you get it
I sent my love, let me know if you get it
