

Baby Jesus

MIKE

I pray you show me some breeze in the summer highs
I can't lie, it bring me grief when I wonder why
I sit in silence 'fore you leave, we share a hunnid cries
Sometimes I'd rather be deceased than say another "Bye"
I took that plane out to Peri-, yeah, a son of Diva
I think it's smarter that I keep it 'fore I dumb it down
I-Idle minds turn to demons when they run around
I'm living far, but I'ma see you when I'm comin' dow-

You think you sly? Why you cheesin' like that wasn't foul
You know my Barbie, know my fee be causin' thunder sound
You need to calm, you need to breathe in, my love is either
I can't promise, not a preacher, I'm underground
As if the custom is the reefer, it wasn't neither
Always thuggin' on my fetus for somethin' deeper
Ain't no discussion with the weak ones, just run 'em down
In neo cities, baby Jesus make honeys seizure
My second comin' where the trees was, it wasn't Easter
I can't trust you 'cause you freeze up, I'm cussin' loud
I'm movin' sluggish 'cause I drink up
I'm movin' sluggish, I-
