

Belly 1

MIKE

SURF GANG, bitch

Shit be cruel, but it never deter
I ain't stupid, expect you to hurt me
Me and crew got my enemies worried
How you glued? You never deserved me
Got my shoes on the enemy's turf
They don't do shit, it never be worth it
I won't Google the head of the serpent
They ain't new, you ain't never referred

Pick and choose who you let in your circle
I was loose, but I get it, I learned
In the two with a stench, it was early
Come out too but the reference disturbin'
22, how was death my concern?
How I move with my bread? How I earned it
A recluse is a definite discernment
I got too much of that bread on my purse
I got too much regrets, I ain't perfect
I ain't lose, from my lesson, I sterned
In the stu', work for breakfast, just verse it
I ain't new to this premise, they purp
In the loop, my celly keep chirpin'
It was cruel when my belly ain't turn
Ain't no doofus, got veteran urges

Shit be cruel, but it never deter
I ain't stupid, expect you to hurt me
Me and crew got my enemies worried
How you glued? You never deserved me
Got my shoes on the enemy's turf
They don't do shit, it never be worth it
I won't Google the head of the serpent
They ain't new, you ain't never referred

Shit be cruel, but it never deter
I ain't stupid, expect you to hurt me
Me and crew got my enemies worried
How you glued? You never deserved me
Got my shoes on the enemy's turf
They don't do shit, it never be worth it
I won't Google the head of the serpent
They ain't new, you ain't never referred

Might be the one
SURF GANG, baby
