

Diamond Dancing (Broke)

MIKE

Before I feel a way, I hope you still will stay close Ain't much I felt today but love and selfish waves at most
And soon, we go our separate ways, there ain't no better way to cope
Some things I wish I never changed, but if it never change, it' s broke

Before I feel a way, I hope you still will stay close Ain't much I felt today but love and selfish waves at most
And soon, we go our separate ways, there ain't no better way to cope
Some things I wish I never changed, but if it never change, it' s broke

Before I feel a way, I hope you still will stay close Ain't much I felt today but love and selfish waves at most
And soon, we go our separate ways, there ain't no better way to
