MIKE

(Evil eye)
Oh sweet darlin' (Oh sweet darlin')
Let me see the light
Ah, ah
(See the light)
Oh sweet-need you
To get me through the night
(Evil eye)

I was gone for a tad on the way back, dummy
If he talk bad I'm getting payback, dummy
Why you tryna hang? You should save that money
In my same bag, niggas couldn't take that from me
They crash, I know when to lay back, dummy
On that strange ave where I used to lay raps, hungry
So we ate half
Brother on the train pack something to evade sad, truth is I relate
It ain't nothing just to break acts, I chewed around the plate
It was months of doing way bad 'fore I saw the cake
Then there's years of tryna change paths, fears of coming late
Too embarrassed for his lame ass, cherish where he stay
Try compare him but it ain't that, comparison's his game
Tarot told me not to praise cash, share it when it came
Thank my parents 'cause I age fast, steer me through the flames
Know they hear it when my brain splash, cherish what I gave

But there's lot of shit to take back, dummy, niggas fake
Pat your hand, leave that same back bloody
It's for my momma when I make raps, dummy, when I pray
'Cause I know she gon' pray back for me
Lot of shit to take back, dummy, niggas fake
Pat your hand, leave that same back bloody
It's for my momma when I make raps, dummy, when I pray
'Cause I know she gon' pray back for me

(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
(Evil eye)
Don't you know I need you to get me through the night
