

get rich quick scheme

MIKE

Look into
People don't get it
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Uh
Yuh, yeah

Said "I'm more than just this image you were tryna sell"
Try to water down the mission for the clientele
I been holdin' back from shittin', they don't like the smell
But they ain't see me for a minute so I might as well
I said, "Time will tell"
It's time to get back in position, we gon' find the frail
You gotta get it where you fit in, it's a sliding scale
For this kinda work, if you ain't tryna fail
Could never change to see your mission 'fore it's time to bail
Takin' trains west to Pacific, I should try the mail
I think he only pressed to live 'cause he might die in Hell
I guess it kinda hurt
Don't gotta tell you if you feel it, it's behind the braille
Tommy left with the experience, and forgot the wealth
The only thing that I inherited was blockin' help
It's part of pops's concern
Remember cringin' at the mirror, I was not myself (Ooh)
That's still a lot to learn
I came back from lighting bridges I forgot to burn
The first stride to getting bigger, had a loss of thirst
I never idolized a nigga with a office shirt
You think I did it for the figures? It was all for her
