

Yeah

I kept you a cut, guess I need a couple
I don't know 'bout trust, best believe I love you
You my son, let's stay in touch, may the reaper touch you
Bro, what happened? Why you bluff? Think I seen enough

We gon' catch you in that cut, boy, we keep it subtle
When my partner say, "Uh-huh," that just mean he stuck
And my papa happy 'cause it, he believe the hustle
I be out, ain't show the plug, I be weeded up
All around me, hella thugs, why I keep in trouble
I was down, but never done, I just needed one
I was down to a joint and I peep a double
You was out here in the slums, gave my people crumbs
Shorty thought I was a bum, she can't leave my muzzle
In the taco restaurant, she think she Rapunzel
I can never fiend for nothin', that been in my blood
Too much pressure in my lungs, but it's never hurt
I found bezels in the mud, I can peep the puzzle
I'm as special as they come, I just keep it hun'
Niggas always sayin' it's luck when you keep it humble

I kept you a cut, guess I need a couple
I don't know 'bout trust, best believe I love you
You my son, let's stay in touch, may the reaper touch you
