MIKE

I heard you seen a demon in my eyes
Sickest since the semen spitting dipped between her thighs
I been tripping for a prize
I'm addicted to your lies
I never hit it overtime
And I got into some shit I guess I'm switchin' up my dime
I guess I did enough
I guess she dippin' out this time
And I ain't hear from her
That's why I'm tripping through these lines
I'm inna district fulla slimes
And you can't pivot all the time
I'm writing writtens for my moms
And some writtens for my mind
And we she left I guess it took abit of shine

Look into my eyes and you can see it all, you can see the city,
you can see it fall
