

Who the devil on the real side?

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, uh

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Heart heavy, tryna pick it up

If I'm ever out the game, who gon' pick it up?

You can tell just by my name that I don't give a-

This shit is really fucked

Tryna take me out the frame of the picture

See these niggas lose their game for the bigger bucks

Thirsty for the dollar and the fixture

I hope, praying really fix your luck

When it's time to get deeper, I be digging dirt

I swear this shit is ugly, niggas switching trust

Can't put shit above me, it left a nigga stuck

Don't be sipping bubbly, just be hitting bud, busting it from u s

There's too many times I worried they ain't shit but rub

Being hungry, smoking potent, that's a different buzz

What, I was in the cut

I was sitting, tell me if I took the drugs

Don't know this shit, sorry, I can't get enough

I can't get enough, uh, I can't get enough

I was in the cut

I was sitting, tell me if I took the drugs

Don't know this shit, sorry, I can't get enough

I can't get enough, I can't get enough

I was in the cut

I was sitting, tell me if I took the drugs

Don't know this shit, sorry, I can't get enough

I can't get enough
