

Strange Feeling

MIKE

Yeah, uh, uh, uh
I get this strange feeling
That you
Uh, yeah, uh

You know we only getting one go, huncho
The liver drink different from the lung smoke
Slumped over, got to give her kiss like it was gun smoke
Young folk learnin' how to distance what was once home
Numb toes trekkin' through the winter and the sun's stroke
I trust bro, it's nothing that is bigger or above hope
My crux glow, my mother know I'm with her gettin' up close
I come close, this island full of sinners and the cut-throat
Stuck froze diamond in the middle of the mud-flow
Enough hope, I got to get up with you 'fore the month go
My cup whole, I'm tired reminiscin' bein' unknown
Can't trust those, she tryin' to find a prince for her Rapunzel
Tuck roll, the fire gettin' bigger and my luck broke
Nothin' goin', might just make a wish above the cut goat
The jump rope of life I'm tryin' to skip, I got to jump more
And put my life into this shit, it's only one go

I get this strange feeling, that you—
I get this strange feeling, that you—
I get this strange feeling
This classic zombie was very much a livin' human who threw drug

Religious ceremonies and behavioral manipulation would convince
