

Hello

Are you hearing what I'm saying?

All, all, all your adversaries are here

I hate to get involved, it be quicker stress, that's all
You know I differ, I've been called for a bigger step, it's talk

They be bitter like balsamic vinaigrette

Dogs be the bigger threat

As far as momma thought, I got this cough from a cigarette

You soft in the flesh then be softer on the internet

Bark with your chest then you barter with your innocence

Starved on the bench to be a starter when it finishes

The scar in my head that tomorrow isn't infinite

When it charged, thinking when to disregard what the mission is

I'm shark where the fishes swim, it's bars

When it isn't art where my feelings live, a star

We really are the dark, shit is limitless in tar

But still I take it far, whispering the charms

Please show me where you are

Since an infant in your arms

We keep rolling where it shards

My timidness, I guard, I learned to live a bit, enlarged

Take my dividends and march

Wrote this intricate, in March

Rolling spliffs to feel a spark

Told them bridges "Split apart", I hope the distance feeling sharp

In a minute it'll be ours

Every vision we embark, still got them pictures from the parkway

Skipping passed the Narcs, we taking wins when we in harm's way

It's written, we the ark

Listen like Marley

Be Dry!

And I will dry up thy rivers

He said, "when you say be dry!"

He come, and dry him up

When you look at the man

And you say "Be dead!"

He said, "I will make him to die"

When you say "Live!"

Then I will make him to live!

He said, "when you say it, I will make it happen! "
