

Time Ain't Enough

MIKE

Don't sell that black soap to nobody else, man
Don't sell it to nobody that don't deserve the black soap, you feel me?

Yeah, man, the black soap is powerful

Oh, man, ay, ay, ya

I know you're selling the black soap and all that

Just make sure you call your momma

Make sure you call moms, she wanna hear

Ay, the black soap is powerful, man, the black soap

You selling the black soap, you know what I mean?

Ah, ah, ah, ah

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Ah, ah, ah, ah

Wintertime here, but my mind still

Think about you often

Make a ring around my coffin

Finessing songs until the rain die (Yeah)

Wing arms when the pain come

I bring heart when I say some

I should keep quiet maybe when the day done

Swear I be by it, that's my team wilding

Them my brothers and my sisters so I be biased

Money over my existence to police 'round here

Funny Ola getting bigger and she speak 'bout this

This a deep fountain, throw a penny in it

Made a wish to get a cup and throw some Henny in it

Breaking bridges with some buddies who ain't claim division

Gold was in the same position, so within I'll pay with wisdom

Butterflies inside my stomach and I hate to get them

I be inches away when my hand caress 'em mics because I be forgetting

There's some thoughts I get at night that I just need to question

Tryna call to this God but I just need reception

Yeah, I just need reception

(Ah, ah, ah) I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you

Yeah, I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you all the time

(Ah, ah, ah) I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you

I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you all the

I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you

I know that time heals

But my mind still think about you all the
