

So crazy

Mikey Wax

Take the heart beneath my skin
Watch me let you right back in
I'm crazy for you now you're so beautiful
It's like I'm floating on a wave
You take me up and down and break

But I'm crazy
For you crazy
I cannot go on

But why are you turning around?
That's who you are.
When you change to someone you're not but you're beautiful
Please stay
Cause I'm look to you for something more
I'm so crazy
For you baby
I cannot go on
Your love is what I crave
But like a drug I start to shake
The more of you
The more you're so beautiful
But love that makes you ache
Is a love you love to hate

And I'm crazy
For you crazy
I cannot go on...

But why are you turning around?
That's who you are.
When you change to someone you're not but you're beautiful
Please stay cause I'm looking to you for something more
I'm so crazy
For you crazy
I cannot go on

But why are you turning around?
Is that who you are?
When you change to someone you're not but you're beautiful
Please stay cause I'm looking to you for something more
I'm so crazy
For you crazy
I cannot go on
